Looking after War Memorials and Honour Rolls

HORSHAM RSL

FRIDAY
29 MAY 2015

This informative free workshop will be held at Horsham RSL.

War Memorial Gates which form the entrance to Lake Marma Reserve, Murtoa.

Looking after War Memorials and Honour Rolls is a Heritage Skills Workshop presented by the Heritage Council of Victoria, Heritage Victoria in the Department of Environment, Land, Water and Planning and the Victorian Department of Premier and Cabinet.

This workshop is aimed at owners and managers of War Memorials and Honour Rolls. It includes sessions on:

- Documentation and records
- DPC - Veterans Affairs Branch grant programs - Cathy Nash
- Materials: stones, mortars, inscriptions, gilding, metals
- Care, including cleaning and graffiti removal
- Care of timber honour boards

There will also be a tour of relevant sites to inspect practical examples from the course material. Lunch, morning and afternoon tea is included.

Presenters: David Young OAM, Adjunct Associate Professor at the University of Melbourne, is an experienced heritage consultant specialising in building materials conservation. Jenny Dickens is Heritage Victoria's materials conservation officer.

When: Friday, 29 May, 2015, 9 am - 5.00pm (Registration from 8.45am)

Where: Horsham RSL, 36 McLachlan Street, Horsham.

Bookings essential: The workshop is free to attend but bookings are required.

Email: pauline.hitchins@delwp.vic.gov.au (including dietary requirements)
Enquiries: 03 9208 3622

NOTE: Places are limited: only attendees with a booking will be accommodated.

A further workshops will be held in Warrnambool on 12 June

HERITAGE VICTORIA HERITAGE VICTORIA HERITAGE VICTORIA

HERITAGE COUNCIL VICTORIA HERITAGE COUNCIL VICTORIA

State Government Victoria